1 Your personal data – what is it?

- 1 Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified by that data. Identification can be made by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

2 Who are we?

- 2 We are Sandbach Community Church and serve as the 'data controller'. In accordance with the law, this means we make the decisions on the processing of your personal data and its intended uses. We are committed to protecting your privacy, and promise to respect your personal information and do all we can to keep it safe.

3 How do we process your personal data?

- 3 Sandbach Community Church complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by:
 - by keeping personal data up to date;
 - by storing and destroying it securely;
 - by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data;
 - by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure
 - by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

4 For what purposes will we use your personal data?

- Sandbach Community Church will use your personal data for the following purposes:
- general church administration
- communication.
- To maintain certain administrative records and accounts (e.g., marriages, church attendance, gift-aid declarations)
- To promote, inform and manage events, activities and services running at the Sandbach Community Church.
- To manage employees and volunteers in the operations of Sandbach Community Church events.
- To understand certain demographics (i.e., who the Sandbach Community Church is impacting and influencing from different sectors of the community).

5 What is the lawful basis for processing your personal data?

- 4 The lawful basis for processing personal data for Sandbach Community Church is Consent. Consent is defined as, “any freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of the data subject’s wishes by which he or she, by a statement or by clear affirmative action, signifies agreement to the processing of personal data relating to him or her.”
- 5 To gain consent, the Sandbach Community Church has produced a Data Consent Form for all adults to complete and sign new church attendees to complete when they start attending the church.

6 Sharing your personal data

- 6 Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church (e.g., Key Department leaders, Life Group leaders) for purposes connected with the church. We do not sell or pass any of your personal information to any other organisations and/or individuals without your express consent unless required, by law.

7 How long do we keep your personal data?

- 7 In general terms, we will keep your data as long as you are a regular attender of the Sandbach Community Church. Should you choose to leave Sandbach Community Church at any time, we will then archive your personal data. In specific terms, we retain gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and church registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals, etc) permanently. However, we would really appreciate it if you let us know if your contact or personal details change, as this gives us consent to use the updated information and continue to communicate with you. We always aim to communicate with you respectfully, effectively and efficiently. You can opt out of these communications at any time; just let us know by contacting info@Sandbach.org.

8 Your rights and your personal data

- 8 Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:
 - The right to request a copy of your personal data which Sandbach Community Church holds about you;
 - The right to request that Sandbach Community Church corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
 - The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for Sandbach Community Church to retain such data;
 - The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
 - The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with your personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability).
 - The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
 - The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics]
 - The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

9 Further processing

- 9 If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Policy, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
- 10 Sandbach Community Church will treat all your personal information as private and confidential and not disclose any data about you to anyone other than the leadership and ministry overseers/co-coordinators of the church in order to facilitate the administration and day-to-day ministry of the church.
- 11 All Sandbach Community Church staff and volunteers who have access to Personal Data will be required to agree to sign a Confidentiality Policy and a Data Protection Policy. Those authorised to use the database only have access to their specific area of use within the database. This is controlled by the Data Controller and other specified administrators. These are the only people who can access and set these security parameters.

10 Sandbach Community Church will use your data for three main purposes:

1. The day-to-day administration of the church; e.g. pastoral care and oversight including calls and visits, preparation of ministry rotas, maintaining financial records of giving for audit and tax purposes.
2. Contacting you to keep you informed of church services, activities and events.
3. Statistical analysis; gaining a better understanding of church demographics. N.B. although collated church data may be passed to a third party, such as number of small groups or attendance, no personal data will be disclosed

11 Rights to Access Information

If you want to access your information you should make the request in writing to the Data Protection Officer, using the standard letter which is available online from www.ico.gov.uk. We do not accept these requests by email.
